

THE SLAVERY EXPLOITATION TEAM AND SERAC

-  The Slavery Exploitation Team (SET) - are a local authority-based service covering the whole of Nottinghamshire County and City areas. The team has dedicated officers who work with partners to identify and tackle exploitation, modern slavery and trafficking and establish pathways to support for survivors. The team do not have any contact with victims or provide any one-to-one support, but rather drive a multiagency approach to identification, prevention and management of slavery, exploitation and trafficking

THE TEAM

- Liaise with key agencies such as police, social care, DWP, housing providers, home office, local authority teams (ASB, licencing, Safer Housing), charities and non-government organisations
- Assess and identify the most appropriate agency to manage a number of identified risk factors such as substance use, mental health, housing, immigration status, health, ability to risk assess and keep safe, agency involvement, police/hospital presentation, slavery/ exploitation/ trafficking in order to achieve faster resolution by addressing all complexities
- Carry out lower-level investigations and gathering of intelligence
- Assess for SERAC (Slavery Exploitation Risk Assessment Conference) /emergency strategy meetings
- Offer specialist guidance and support to professionals
- Support with co-ordinated multiagency visits

THE SERAC (SLAVERY EXPLOITATION RISK ASSESSMENT CONFERENCE)

-  The SERAC is a monthly multiagency meeting that unites agencies to discuss suspected or known cases and plan a joint response to manage risk and identify appropriate interventions. The SERAC has been operational in the City for a number of years, more recently two further SERACs have been established in both the North (Bassetlaw, Newark & Sherwood, Mansfield and Ashfield) and the South (Gedling, Broxtowe and Rushcliffe) of the county. The SERAC is attended by a number of key agencies including police (neighbourhood and MDS team), social care, hospitals, mental health services, substance support services, probation, GLAA

OUTCOMES

	Support police investigations
	Feed into National Referral Mechanism referrals
	Work with partners to source appropriate accommodation
	Safety planning
	Capacity assessments
	Identifying appropriate advocate
	Support to return to home country (when desired)
	Continuation of monitoring

HOW TO REFER

- The team does not have specific criteria, so any concerns about potential exploitation can be referred in, regardless of other agency involvement, referrals, or thresholds
- Referrals can be made by sending a completed referral form to msvp@nottinghamcity.gov.uk
- If you are unsure about putting in a referral, you can email the team, msvp@nottinghamcity.gov.uk, and someone will call you back to have a discussion
- Consent is not required for referrals. Disclosures around referrals may place victims at further risk of harm*

*The legal basis for sharing information for safeguarding is covered under: Prevention and Detection of Crime (s.115 Crime and Disorder Act 1998), to protect victim or others from serious harm or matter of life or death (GDPR art.6 & 9), for a public task (vital interests - usually bringing perpetrators to justice), right to be free from torture or inhuman or degrading treatment (Human Rights Act, Articles 2 & 3) and prevention of abuse and neglect (The Care Act 2014)